

Canada's most trusted international physician recruitment firm

ABOUT US

Founded in 1997, CanAm Physician Recruiting is Canada's most trusted international physician recruitment firm. Our depth of industry knowledge and uncompromising customer service has enabled us to meet the needs of thousands of employers and doctors around the globe. Our client base continues to grow exponentially due to our proven track record in finding the proper fit for clients on both sides of the recruitment process.

We are a full-service recruitment firm with expertise in every stage of the physician recruitment process, including: interviewing, credential verification, licensing, contract evaluation, immigration, business planning, tax consulting and real estate. Our regional offices are strategically located across Canada to ensure strong relationships with relevant industry stakeholders throughout the Country.

SERVICES

CanAm's Team is composed of principals and associates who are widely recognized as proven experts in health care leadership and management; the team includes former CEOs, Medical Directors and others who have worked in senior health care management roles across Canada and Internationally in growing health care sectors of the Caribbean and the Middle East.

In the last 25 years, CanAm has regularly counseled medical students, residents, fellows and physicians who may struggle with licensing, or have malpractice issues. In addition, we may also consult for physicians in front of Colleges' Review Boards, Registrars and Medical Advisory Committees. We work with Hospital CEOs, Medical Directors, Dept heads and private clinics.

CanAm is known to offer clients an integrated solution to health care management and physician recruitment challenges.

"I can recommend CanAm Physician Recruiting for any company looking to get not only qualified talent but the right fit for their organization. Michelle took the time to understand the needs of our organization and helped us narrow the ratio of interviews to hires. Suresh Madan, MBA, CFA, FACHE | President and CEO | MyHealth Centre – A WELL Health Company
